BERTHA CHRISTINA ANDREWS EMIN AWARD (Scholastic Excellence)

This endowed award was established in honor of Bertha Christina Andrews Emin, a 1912 graduate of Rhode Island State Normal School, who has devoted her life to contributing to the schools and community of Smithfield. The award is presented to a resident of Smithfield, R.I. who has the highest cumulative average at the end of the seventh semester and who is scheduled to graduate in May.

BERTHA CHRISTINA ANDREWS EMIN AWARD (Outstanding Achievement)

A second award in honor of Mrs. Emin, it is given to a woman member of the May graduating class who has distinguished herself by attaining an honors baccalaureate and by active leadership in student affairs.

JOHN E. HETHERMAN AWARD

Department of Athletics, Intramurals and Recreation
William M. Baird, Director

This endowed award was established as a memorial to the late John E. Hetherman, Class of 1940, who was killed in action during World War II. The award is presented to a graduating senior man in recognition of his scholastic success and his achievements as an athlete, gentleman and participant in campus activities.

HELEN M. MURPHY AWARD

Department of Athletics, Intramurals and Recreation
William M. Baird, Director

This endowed award was established in honor of Helen M. Murphy, Class of 1939, who was a distinguished faculty member at the Henry Barnard School. The award is given to a woman member of the May graduating class in recognition of her scholastic success, as well as her achievements as an athlete and a participant in campus and community activities.

JAMES HOUSTON AWARD IN ANTHROPOLOGY/GEOGRAPHY

Department of Anthropology and Geography
George M. Epple, Chair

This award is presented annually to a graduating senior majoring in either anthropology or geography who has demonstrated outstanding academic achievement and has had significant involvement in the department and the concerns of the discipline. It is made possible by contributions from the faculty of anthropology/geography and by a generous gift from Alice and James Houston, whose interests in researching, recording and teaching about the cultures and habitats of native America have been a constant inspiration.

STUDIO ART AWARD

Department of Art
Richard A. Kenyon, Chair

This award for excellence in studio is made annually to a senior student. It is a competitive award for which eligible graduating seniors present their work to a faculty jury appointed by the Art Department chair.

THEODORE LEMESHKA AWARD

Department of Biology
Kenneth P. Kinsey, Chair

As a faculty member Theodore Lemeshka won high esteem and admiration from faculty, staff and especially students during his twenty years of service to Rhode Island College.

Ted came to RIC in 1956 to teach biology and he initiated courses in microbiology in 1960.

The Theodore Lemeshka Award is given annually in his memory to a graduating senior biology major. The recipient must have a minimum cumulative grade index of 3.0 for all courses taken at RIC and must have a minimum cumulative index of 3.5 for the following RIC courses: Chemistry 103-104 (General Chemistry), Biology 331 (Human Anatomy), Biology 335 (Human Physiology) and Biology 348 (Microbiology).

W. CHRISTINA CARLSON AWARD

Department of Biology
Kenneth P. Kinsey, Chair

The W. Christina Carlson Fund was established by friends and colleagues in memory of Chris Carlson who taught biology at Rhode Island College from before her graduation in 1925 until 1954 when she became the institution's registrar. Her principal interest was botany, but she was knowledgeable and taught successfully in all areas of the field.

The recipient of this award must be a biology major who has demonstrated exceptional potential for research in biological sciences.

RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE THEATRE AWARD

Department of Communications and Theatre
Raymond L. Picozzi, Chair

The award, consisting of a theatre book and a round trip train ticket to New York City, is presented to a senior student chosen by the department faculty as having displayed overall achievement in and contribution to the theatre program.

PETER JEFFREY ARCHAMBAULT MEMORIAL AWARD

Department of Communications and Theatre
Raymond L. Picozzi, Chair

This award is given in memory of Peter Jeffrey Archambault, who was at the time of his death a Rhode Island College student majoring in communications, but who had a keen interest in theatre.

The award is given annually to a graduating senior who has demonstrated scholarly achievement as well as creative ability in theatre. The recipient of this award shall also have displayed humanistic concerns.

JOHN SILVA MEMORIAL SCHOLASTIC AWARD

Department of Economics and Management
Joel M. Fuerst, Chair

In 1980 the Department of Economics and Management renamed its faculty scholastic achievement award in memory of John Silva, a bright and talented management student and athlete, who tragically passed away shortly before his graduation with the Class of 1980. The award is presented annually to the senior who achieves the highest weighted grade point average within the department. In appreciation of the overall contribution of John Silva to Rhode Island College, John's family and friends raised sufficient funds to establish an endowment within the Rhode Island College Foundation to honor his memory. The fund provides for this award and another to be presented to a sophomore, who has attained an overall grade point average of 3.25 and has demonstrated leadership, dedication and commitment to the College and community through service and participation in social, extracurricular or professional organizations.

WALL STREET JOURNAL AWARD (For Student Achievement)

Department of Economics and Management
Joel M. Fuerst, Chair

This award is provided annually to a nominee furnished by the Department of Economics and Management and is granted to a graduating senior through a faculty ballot, after a very thorough review of the overall scholastic achievements as well as service to the department, to the College and the community. The award consists of a desk top paperweight inscribed with the name of the recipient and a one year complimentary subscription to the Wall Street Journal. The name of the recipient is also engraved on a brass plate placed within the Department of Economics and Management.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION FACULTY AWARD

Department of Elementary Education
Anne K. Petry, Chair

This award is given to a graduating senior who exemplifies enthusiasm for learning and dedication to teaching and who has demonstrated leadership. The recipient of the award shall also be articulate and should have a strong academic record over all courses attempted at the College.

The award is funded by members of the Department of Elementary Education and includes a gift in memory of Doris Hackett Lusardi.

JEAN GARRIGUE AWARD

Department of English
Robert E. Hogan, Chair

The Jean Garrigue Award is presented each year by the English Department to a graduating senior who is also an English major and who has excelled in the area of creative writing. The award is named in honor of Jean Garrigue, the distinguished American poet, who was visiting professor of English at Rhode Island College in 1972, the year of her death. The award consists of $100.

THE LEONELLI FAMILY MEMORIAL AWARD

Rhode Island College Foundation
Herbert W. Cummings, President

The Leonelli Family Memorial Award was established in December, 1982, through an endowment fund within the Rhode Island College Foundation, by the members of the Leonelli family in memory of Filomeno, Lucia and Ermanno Leonelli. Because of the Leonelli family's high interest in and love of Italian culture and language, the award will be presented to a student who has achieved academic excellence in the study of Italian.

CLAIBORNE D. PELL AWARD

Department of History
David S. Thomas, Chair

This award is made possible through the generosity of Senator Claiborne Pell and recognizes excellence in United States history. The award consists of a gold medal and a certificate attesting to the high achievement of the recipient in United States history.

EVELYN WALSH PRIZE

Department of History
David S. Thomas, Chair

The Evelyn Walsh Prize is given in memory of Evelyn Walsh, who was for many years a member of the Department of History. The prize consists of a certificate and a cash award in recognition of both academic excellence and, particularly, the contribution that the recipient has made to the life and work of the department.

EPSILON PI TAU, BETA SIGMA CHAPTER AWARD

Department of Industrial Education
Kenneth A. McVay, Chair

This award honors an outstanding student in the Department of Industrial Education (1) with a certificate, (2) by inscribing his/her name on a commemorative plaque in the department and (3) by presenting the student with one share of stock in an industry that represents the student's technical area of interest.

THE CHRISTOPHER R. MITCHELL AWARD

Department of Mathematics and Computer Science
Helen E. Salzberg, Chair

This award is given each year to the outstanding mathematics major among the graduating class. It is funded by the department faculty and named in honor of Christopher R. Mitchell who was an esteemed and revered mathematics faculty member, known for his excellence in teaching.

RICHARD A. HOWLAND COMPUTER SCIENCE AWARD

Department of Mathematics and Computer Science
Helen E. Salzberg, Chair

This award of a significant book, subscription or professional membership is presented to a graduating senior for outstanding performance in the field of computer science. It is named as a memorial to Richard A. Howland, an inspiring teacher and scholar of both mathematics and computer science.

NELSON A. GUERTIN MEMORIAL AWARDS

Department of Modern Languages

Calvin Tillotson, Chair

The Nelson A. Guertin Memorial Awards in French and Spanish were established by the Department of Modern Languages in 1978. Nelson A. Guertin, whose name these awards perpetuate, served Rhode Island College as a member of the Department of Modern Languages for thirty-seven years, retiring in 1973. There are two awards, one for French and one for Spanish. The prize recipients have been selected by the faculty of the department on the basis of their academic work and their demonstrated interest in foreign language study.

TEGU POLYGLOT AWARD

Department of Modern Languages

Calvin Tillotson, Chair

The Tegu Polyglot Award honors and distinguishes a member of the senior class who has demonstrated outstanding interest and achievement in foreign language study with particular emphasis on oral proficiency. This award is the gift of Dr. Steven Tegu, Professor Emeritus of Modern Languages, whose life and work have been dedicated to the promotion of human understanding through the mastery of languages.

CANTOR JACOB HOHENEMSER AWARD

Department of Music

Francis M. Marciniak, Chair

Jacob Hohenemser came to Rhode Island as a refugee from Nazi Germany, graduated from Rhode Island College in 1948 and later served as cantor at Temple Emanu-El until his death. Through the generosity of Temple Emanu-El in Providence to the Rhode Island College Foundation, the Cantor Jacob Hohenemser Award was established in 1968 and is presented annually to an outstanding graduating student of music.

NURSING FACULTY AWARDS

Department of Nursing

Rebecca G. Lassan, Chair

The Nursing Faculty Awards are given to two graduating seniors: One generic student nurse and one registered nurse student. The awards, given for excellence in nursing theory and practice, are made on the basis of scholarship, excellence in clinical practice, leadership within the Department of Nursing and service to the College and community.

PHILOSOPHY FACULTY AWARD

Department of Philosophy

Frank S. Williston, Chair

The Philosophy Faculty Award was established in 1977. Each year the award is presented to a student majoring in philosophy who, in the judgment of department faculty members, has demonstrated outstanding achievement in the pursuit of philosophical study.

RONALD J. BORUCH AWARD

Department of Physical Sciences

John C. Williams, Jr., Chair

This award, given in memory of Ronald J. Boruch, is presented to the graduating senior with a major in chemistry, physical science, or general science who, in the judgment of the faculty, is the outstanding student in terms of scholarly achievement, leadership and professional promise.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF CHEMISTS AWARD

Department of Physical Sciences

John C. Williams, Jr., Chair

The recipient of this award, given by the American Institute of Chemists, Inc., is a senior majoring in chemistry who has demonstrated scholastic achievement, leadership ability and character.

NORTH PROVIDENCE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS AWARD

Department of Political Science

Milburn J. Stone, Chair

This award was made possible by the North Providence League of Women Voters. After fourteen years of existence the organization voted to disband its membership. Efforts were made to identify a worthwhile project in which the remaining funds from the chapter's treasury could be invested. Based on the organization's concern for informed political participation, a prize to be awarded by the Political Science Department of Rhode Island College presented an opportunity to continue the organization's support in this field and to keep its role and mission in the public awareness.

The purpose of the award is to recognize an outstanding senior who has majored in political science at Rhode Island College and is a North Providence resident.

He/she must have demonstrated academic excellence and should have a history of leadership in school, community or state affairs.

JOHN H. CHAFEE AWARD

Department of Political Science

Milburn J. Stone, Chair

John H. Chafee, in addition to serving in a variety of capacities in public office in both state and national governments, was also an adjunct professor with the Department of Political Science in 1974. This award in his name is given annually to a senior political science major who has demonstrated extraordinary ability and involvement in the study of politics as evidenced by grade point average and participation in political affairs.

PSYCHOLOGY FACULTY SENIOR AWARD

Department of Psychology

Donald H. Cousins, Chair

Presented annually by the faculty of the Psychology Department, this award recognizes a graduating senior psychology major who has distinguished himself/herself through outstanding academic achievement and accomplishments in related activities and services.

LAURIS B. WHITMAN AWARD IN SOCIOLOGY

Department of Sociology

Mary A. Hawkes, Chair

The Lauris B. Whitman Award in Sociology was established in 1979. It honors the person who served as the first chair of the Department of Sociology from 1970 until 1976, the late Lauris B. Whitman. It was he who established the fundamental directions which still guide this department: democratic leadership; a concern for the development of a sound, creative curriculum; and commitment to student participation in departmental affairs.

This award — which honors excellence in academic work, especially sociology, and service to the department, College, and/or community — is awarded each year to a graduating senior.

BACHELOR OF SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM — ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE AWARD

Bachelor of Social Work Program

Mildred Bates, Director

This award is made to a graduating senior in the B.S.W. Program with the highest composite grade point average and consists of the Encyclopedia of Social Work.

BACHELOR OF SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM — SERVICE EXCELLENCE AWARD

Bachelor of Social Work Program

Mildred Bates, Director

This award is made to a graduating senior in the B.S.W. Program who has demonstrated excellence in service to disadvantaged populations and to the social work profession and who has maintained a grade point average of 2.5 or better in the major.

---

JOSEPHINE A. STILLINGS AWARD

Department of Special Education

John F. DiMeo, Chair

In her more than fifteen years of service to Rhode Island College, Josephine Stillings established a model for all teachers of an individual who possessed both the qualities of an excellent teacher and a warm human being. This award is presented to a graduating senior (January or May) who has demonstrated outstanding performance in special education student teaching and has a high cumulative index in special education course work.

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES

Each year at Commencement events across the country a special group of students is honored by its selection for membership in the prestigious Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. Since 1934, Who's Who has annually bestowed this honor on outstanding students for their scholastic, extracurricular and community achievements.

With the support of prominent educational institutions throughout the country, the program recognizes and calls attention to those college students who are the reservoir from which our nation draws its leadership.
